

Guests Registration

The American Hungarian Educators Association recognizes that the local residents of the city in which a Conference is held may have an interest in attending only a part of the Conference. The AHEA welcomes such support, and our speakers and other presenters appreciate a larger audience. For this reason, at the invitation of the sponsoring John Carroll University, local residents, who attend only part of the Conference, are welcome to do so at reduced cost.

REGISTRATION for Friday-Saturday sessions (scholarly paper presentations)

1 half-day = $5                      1 whole day = $10                      whole day both Friday & Saturday = $20

IMPORTANT: Please come to the Registration Desk to sign in and to obtain a Conference Badge.

Event information

- All Thursday evening events are FREE for everyone.
Thursday, April 14, 7:00 pm, AHEA Keynote Speaker on Islam; reception following;
film About a Village; all events in the Dolan Science Center, JCU campus
- Friday & Saturday Conference sessions
(scholarly paper presentations), in the JCU Lombardo Student Center
Please pay the registration fee as described above.
- Friday Noon Concert: Oberlin Balkan Music Ensemble – Free for guest registrants
- Friday 4:00 pm Outcasts, A Love Story, same building as above, film by Ms. Susan Papp
Included in full day ($10) guest registration fee; otherwise $5 local half-day donation/fee requested.
- Friday Evening 7:30 pm, Piano Recital by Dr. Judit Gábos, JCU Lombardo Student Center
$7 donation for all, pay at the door.
Free reception and Táncház (Dance House – folk dancing) to follow.
- Saturday: 2:00 pm, Dr. Piró Kramár lecture downtown at the Hungarian Heritage Museum
$10 donation to the Museum for all, pay at the Museum.

MEALS (Friday-Saturday lunch, & Friday dinner, during Conference)

There is a snack bar in the basement of the Lombardo Student Center building where AHEA sessions will be held Friday and Saturday. Additionally, a limited number of student cafeteria meal tickets (in the same building) may be available for purchase on-site at the Conference Registration Desk. (Cafeteria lunch tickets each day Friday/Saturday: $7.95; dinner Friday only $8.95; snack bar is à la carte)

BANQUET at BALATON RESTAURANT, Saturday, April 16, 2011, at 7:00 pm

Please pre-register and pre-pay; $35/person. Deadline: Wednesday, April 13, 2011

Contact Dr. Martha Pereszlenyi-Pinter for banquet information: 216.397-4723, mpereszlenyi@jcu.edu

PARKING: Free for all guests on JCU campus. Stop at the guard house at entrance, and identify yourself as attending AHEA events and ask for a parking pass, and also directions to buildings. Thursday evening: Fairmount Circle entrance suggested. Other times: Belvoir Blvd. entrance suggested.

CONTACTS & ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

- See the Conference website for descriptions of events, & full program: <http://ahea.net/conferences/2011>
- For additional local information, contact the Local Organizing Committee: Dr. Katherine Gyékényesi Gatto gatto@jcu.edu; Dr. Martha Pereszlenyi-Pinter mpereszlenyi@jcu.edu; Mr. Endre Szentkirályi Endre.Szentkiralyi@nordoniaschools.org

Attendees: The AHEA – American Hungarian Educators Association is a 501 (c)3 non-profit educational foundation. Funding is solely through memberships and donations. The registration and other fees support the Annual Conference expenses. Therefore, everyone is asked to pay a Conference registration fee in order to attend sessions, and to help defray the costs of putting on such a Conference.

Presenters: AHEA Membership as well as the regular full Conference fee is required for everyone who will present a paper or chair a session, including local residents. If you are a presenter, please refer to the regular Registration form. Forms can be downloaded from : <http://ahea.net/conferences/2011>