

AHEA — American Hungarian Educators Association

<http://ahea.net>

39th Annual Conference

8-10 May 2014

University of Florida, Gainesville

215 Dauer Hall

Gainesville, FL 32611-7342

Invitation

The American Hungarian Educators Association (AHEA) holds a yearly conference of academic and independent scholars, other educators, and graduate students in the subjects of Hungarian culture, history, folklore, language and literature, fine arts, and music. Its 39th conference will be held at the University of Florida, Gainesville, with the theme:

Turning Points in Hungarian Life and History.

Papers and presentations are open to the public to which all those interested are invited. The language of the conference is English; also a few Hungarian papers will be included. The complete program listing and additional information for participants and guests, including social events, are available on the AHEA web portal, <http://ahea.net/conferences/2014>

Please note that we will be presenting two films of Hungarian subjects.

Thursday evening, on 8 May, a full feature movie by András Vágvölgyi will be shown,

KOLORÁDÓ KID.

The showing of the film will be by special arrangement with the producer/director.

Friday afternoon we will be showing Heritage, a documentary film by Réka Pigniczky. The subject of maintaining our Hungarian heritage is discussed through interviews and archive film footage.

Hope to see you at the AHEA conference!

From the Chair of the Local Organizing Committee of the AHEA Conference:

Prof. Alice Freifeld, Chair, AHEA Local Organizing Committee
Director, Center for European Studies