

SUNDAY ACTIVITIES AND/OR TOURING CLEVELAND

American Hungarian Educators Association

43rd Annual Conference, April 12 – 14, 2018
Cleveland State University, Cleveland, Ohio 44115

TWO TENTATIVE GROUP TOURS

AHEA is working on setting up a choice of TWO DOCENT LED TOURS but we must have a minimum of 10 participants for each. Please contact Márta at mperezslenyi@jcu.edu and ASAP if you would like to participate in a group tour. Both tours are at 11 am Sunday April 15 and will last approximately one hour, choose one or the other. Preregistration is required for either tour. The Maltz Museum tour will be $10/person group rate payable on site (normally $12 admission), and the Rose Iron Works is free. (If those with cars would volunteer to help transport AHEA participants, that would be wonderful!)

(N.B.: You can also visit the Maltz Museum on your own but Rose Iron Works is only available for group tours.)

MORE OPTIONS FOR TOURING CLEVELAND

Cleveland ranked among 21 best places in the world by National Geographic!

Wow! Way to go, Cleveland! Our city has been ranked among the 21 best places in the world to visit in 2018. Yes, you read that right... Cleveland is among the best in the WORLD! The recognition comes from National Geographic's guide to the "places you need to visit" next year. Cleveland came in at #14. It was only one of two locations in the continental United States to make the list. See below for what you can do in Cleveland while at the AHEA conference, with special attention given to Hungarian related places of interest.

- Here is a website where you can fill out a request for a CLEVELAND VISITOR'S GUIDE and have it sent to your home before coming to Cleveland for the AHEA:
