January 2024 Newsletter

President's Corner

Happy new year, dear AHEA friends and colleagues!

May 2024 bring peace, joy, and plenty of opportunities to connect!

Let me begin with some important announcements:

1. The deadline to submit abstracts for our 48th annual in-person conference, to be held at Rutgers University in May, has been extended to February 1. See the CFA here.
2. Registration for the conference will open in February. Please visit the conference website for rates and details. Early bird discounts apply before April 1st.
3. It's my pleasure to announce that thanks to our generous donors, we can again offer two research grants ($2,500 each) and several presentation grants ($500 each). Go to the conference website for more information.

Finally, it's time to renew your membership so please navigate to our membership page. See details below.

Warm regards, üdvözlettel,
Helga Lenart-Cheng

Have a question? Please write to summerschoolpecs@pte.hu

The University of Pécs, founded in 1367, is a diverse university with 5,000 international students from 130 countries. Pécs is a gorgeous, vivid city with a 2000-year history, and it is a former European Capital of Culture. The city is an ideal place for students who would like to immerse themselves in Central-Eastern European culture while making friends with students from all over the world. The Pécs Summer School programs first started in 2016, and since then a growing number of programs have been offered to 1,200 students from 85 countries.

Have a New or Upcoming Publication?

We would love to help share news of the impressive and diverse work that AHEA members are doing! If you have a recent book, article, or other scholarly/artistic work you would like your fellow members to know about, send a brief description/promotional blurb and a link to further information to aheanews@gmail.com. Requests will appear in the order in which they were received and may be edited for space.
