Invitation

The American Hungarian Educators Association (AHEA) holds a yearly conference of academic and independent scholars, other educators, and graduate students in the subjects of Hungarian culture, history, folklore, language and literature, fine arts, and music. Its 41st conference will be held at the College Park Marriott Hotel & Conference Center, 3501 University Blvd., East, Hyattsville, MD 20783, with the theme:

— Migration and Emigration —
On the 60th Anniversary of the Hungarian Revolution 1956.

Papers and presentations are open to the public to which all those interested are invited. The language of the conference is English; also a few Hungarian papers will be included. The complete program listing and additional information are available on the AHEA web portal, <http://ahea.net/conferences/2016>.

Please note that we will be presenting three documentary films of Hungarian subjects. Thursday evening, on 28 April 7 PM, BURDOSHÁZ AMERIKÁBÓL: Balogh Balázs néprajzkutató nyomában (English subtitles) will be shown.

The Saturday afternoon program includes two documentaries by Sally Gáti of San Francisco, California: STARTING OVER IN AMERICA: The Story of the Hungarian 56ers (1 PM) and Traditions for Sale - Matyó folk art and artists (3 PM).

Hope to see you at the AHEA conference!
