AHEA27 Travel and Lodging Information [April 22-24, 2027]

LODGING

The Indiana Memorial Union (IMU) Biddle Hotel is located on the campus of Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana, at 900 E. 7th Street. A block of rooms has been reserved for our conference between April 22 and 25, that is for 3 nights at a discount rate. If you plan to arrive earlier, the rates do not apply. There are plenty of other options available, but rates can go high and availability can get scarce.
Bottom line: Reserve your room at your earliest convenience. Do not delay!

NOTE: Rooms are held for us until March 22, 2027. After this date, they are no longer available. The room rates for that weekend are exorbitant! This weekend coincides with Indiana University's famous Little 500 Weekend, one of Bloomington's biggest annual events. It's the largest collegiate bicycle race in the US, attracting more than 25,000 spectators and visitors.

2. Uber or Lyft

Both operate at Indianapolis International Airport and can take you directly to the Biddle Hotel.

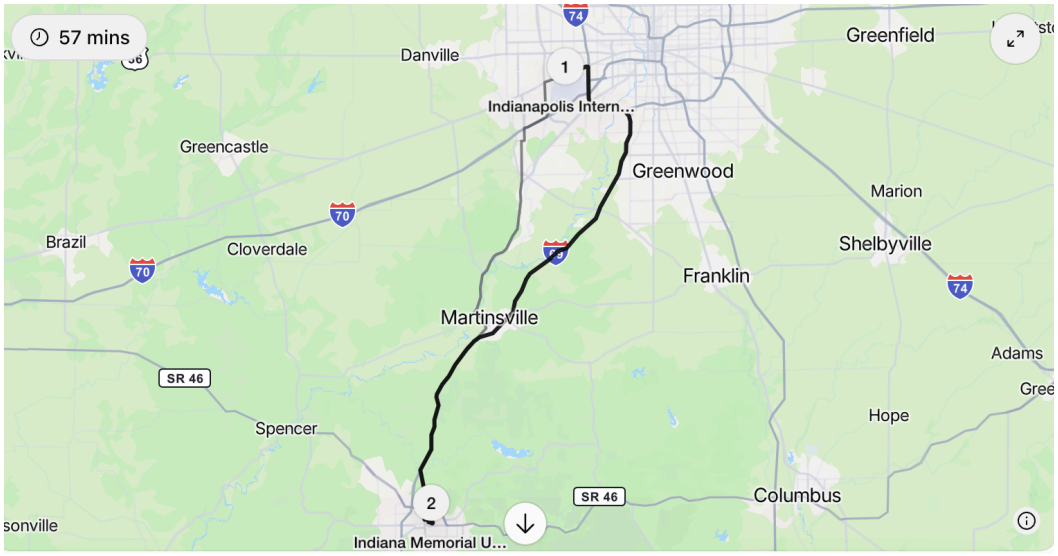

This is faster than the shuttle if a driver is readily available and may be worthwhile for two or three people traveling together. The fare estimates above are planning figures, not live quotes.

3. Private car service

A prearranged car is another possibility, particularly if your flight arrives late or you prefer not to wait for a scheduled shuttle. GO Express offers private transportation, and Indiana University also identifies Classic Touch Limousine as an option.

4. Rental car

Rental cars are available at Indianapolis International Airport. However, if you are staying at the Memorial Union for a conference or university visit, you may not need a car once you arrive. Parking at the hotel may incur additional charges.
